ing Part Kenneth Palmer has confessed to his part in the robbery of the First National Bank of Volant on August 25, 1920, County Detective Lee announces. After steadfastly denying any complicity in the affair Palmer broke down Saturday night and made a complete confession, signed it and gave it to County Detective Peck Lee. His confession is the second one to be made in the case, Harold Holt having previously confessed, and at the time, naming Palmer as his accomplice, the detective Palmer's confession according to Detective Lee bears out almost in every detail, the confession of Holt. In it he states that he met Holt on August 21, 1930, in Bloomington Illinois. SWAT THAT FLY!

The scratch of a lion's claw is almost as deadly as its bite, for he never cleans his nails, and he always carries under them rotten mean that is rank with deadly germs. Flies and bugs do the same thing on a smaller scale. "Don't forget," the United States health service says, "that they never wipe their feet."

Many warnings have been issued by health officials and physicians against the menace of flies during the last few years, and the re- They'd loved him once and voted sults of recent investigations confirm them in the wisdom of the campaign that is being made against the pests that carry the germs of disease and communicate them to human beings by contact with food.

Well-organized plans for fighting flies may be made successful over a considerable territory, but it can only be done by eliminating the places that must be used for hatching. This means that more than ordinary effort must be made to insure cleanliness of stables and surroundings But he was quick to pardon and forand other places that promote the multiplication of flies.

Personal safety of the family should urge care on the part of all persons to guard against flies.

FILL 'ER UP WITH DUST AND LET'S GO

Autoists who may be worried over the possibility that in time the supply of gasoline will become exhausted may take heart from recent demonstrations which prove dust may be used as fuel for furnaces and motors. Of course more will be required than scooping up of dust from the highway, putting it into the tank and rolling along. That would be (Copyright, 1931, Edgar A. Guest.) entirely too easy. Furthermore, the dust used in the tests was the kind that comes from grain elevators, threshing machines and similar devices.

The experiments were conducted by the department of agriculture and were so successful that the chief of the chemical division predicts that if there is another great war, dust will be used as fuel for auto and Great quantities of dust are taken from the large grain elevators every day as a precaution against explosions, the chemist points out. Threshing machines produce a large quantity and even the dust from tobacco factories has been found to be explosive. The supply is limitless. Coal dust might be used, but it is believed that which comes from TRUTH OFTEN SUFFERS starch, grain and sugar will be more effective, especially in view of the fact that they lack abrasive qualities which would create wear upon the machinery.

THE BALANCE OF TRADE

The eternal struggle of nations is for economic independence. Every civilized country is striving to be self-supporting, so that in time of war it may not lack resources, and in time of peace it may enjoy the prosperity and economic well-being which are given to those with a favorable trade balance.

Communities are nations within a nation. Economic independence, while possible only within restricted limits for communities, is just as essential to the city or town as to the nation of which it is a part. Prosperity is impossible without a favorable balance of trade.

Communities which do their shopping in other communities are in the same position as the nation which goes abroad to buy its goods. America is prosperous because its exports exceed its imports, which means more money is coming into the country than is going out. Bankrupt nations of Europe are bankrupt because they are spending their money for the goods of other nations, instead of selling their goods for

A crank often gets things going when the self-starter fails to work.

Women are urged to study taxation. Doubtless those who have to pay taxes do study about it.

Micky Finn, Anxious For President and Mrs. Hoover, but who Good Weather To Make Flock Of Dimes

Don't risk your job by offending with 'B.O.'

AGOOD job is worth hanging onto at all times. Nobody wants to risk dismissal. But are we always careful enough?

When business is slack, employers become more critical. Sometimes very little may turn the scales against us-especially some personal fault like carelessness about "B.O." (body odor)-always so offensive to those about us.

Of course no one means to offend. But we're far too likely to trust to luck that we won't. "Surely I'd notice it myself if I did," we argue. All wrong! The offender is always the last to realize this fault, because we so quickly become used to an ever-present odor.

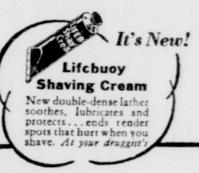

We shouldn't take chances of offending those we can't afford to displease.

Adopt Lifebuoy as your toilet soap. Then you know you're safe. For Lifebuoy's creamy, refreshing, antiseptic lather does more than merely cleanse the surface. It penetrates and purifies pores-removes all odor. Its pleasant, extra-clean scent that vanishes as you rinse-tells you, "No danger of 'B.O.' now!"

Great for the complexion

Massage face with Lifebuoy's gentle, deepcleansing lather once a day. It will free pores of clogged impurities; keep the skin fresh, clear, glowing with health. Women envied for their lovely complexions declare that Lifebuoy "facials" are the finest of all beauty treatments. Adopt Lifebuov

Southern Democrats Will Fight To Last Ditch For Dry Party

Southern Democrats Cold ernor George White of Ohio were Toward Raskob, Roosevelt And Smith

Are Not Talking Candidates, But Issues Below Mason-Dixon Line

By WILLIAM S. NEAL International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 6. - The party wet, F. Scott McBride, superdeclared Saturday following a tour officers than there used to be." of 10 Southern states.

The South, he asserted, is not only determined to write a law enforcement plank in the party platform but it is cold to Democratic National Chairman John J. Raskob, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Alfred E. Smith and Governor Albert C. Ritchie, of

At the same time, McBride said the South does not demand a crusading dry Democratic party.

Non-Partisan Issue

"Prohibition was obtained by nonpartisan methods. The South still looks upon it as a non-partisan issue, and resents any attempts to make the party politically wet. "Southern Democrats are not for a wet candidate for president. I found no sentiment for Roosevelt, Smith, Ritchie or Chairman Raskob. "There is a lot of opposition to belief that Raskob is trying to drag the party into the wet camp.

He is looked upon in the South as a Republican, who is out to care ty to put over a wet program.

"The South is not talking candiit is talking issues. I found that Goff. Cordell Hull of Tennessee, Senator Robinson of Arkansas, Senator Sheppard of Texas, ex-Governor Harry F. Byrd, of Virginia, and Gov-Unanimity Of Opinion "I was amazed to find such unanimity of opinion on prohibition. The South is willing to be the front line

McBride visited Florida, Georgia, the Carolinas, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas and Virginia. He asserted prohibition enforcement is improving in the South, and that it is taking to heart the recommendation of the Wickersham commission for greater cooperation by the states.

"There is an upward trend of sentiment to give prohibition a 5 bouth will fight to the last ditch all chance," he said. Injuries Are Found To Be Of Slight Character When Taken To Hospital

Charles Hunter, 63 Dean Building, reported Saturday that he was driving the machine of William Alexander, 910 West Washington street, north on Pearson street near Taylor street, when Tony Marolda, aged 4, of 612 Pearson street, in running from the east to the west side of Pearson street, ran directly in front of his car. The machine knocked the boy to the ground.

He was picked up by a man witnessing the accident and rushed to the New Castle Hospital, where on examination, it was found that he had sustained no broken bones. His injuries were apparently of a minor

Mrs. Josephine McConahy of 327 North Mercer street, reported Saturday that she was driving west on East North street in front of the Temple Building, and as she was going around another car, her machine collided with a car of the Adams Express Company, which was parked double on the street. Arthur Prioletti driver of the express car in a report made later, stated that he was unaware of any accident occuring until later, when directed to make a report. The damage done was not serious.

Catherine Dickson of 9 East Leasure avenue, had the car of William F. Dickson parked on North Jefferson street Saturday evening and was pulling out, when she backed into the car of a Mr. Mc-Millin, which was parked to the rear of her machine. There was some damage done.

J. E. Patterson of Ellwood City, reported that he was enroute south on South Jefferson street at the Carnegie Auditorium, when his machine was in a collision with another car enroute north on Jefferson street. Some damage was done.

Cyrus H. McConnell of Mercer R. D. No. 1, reported Saturday that he was enroute south on East North street at Croton avenue, making a left hand turn onto Croton avenue, when the car of Robert McConahy, R. D. No. 9, going at a considerable rate of speed, hit and damaged his car. Mr. McConahy in his report claimed that Mr. McConnell failed to make the required main thoroughfare stop. Mr. McConnell in his statement to the police claimed that he had allowed three other cars to pass before entering Croton avenue.

Pittsburgh Detectives Hunt For Three Armed Bandits Today

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, April 6.—Police and detectives today widened their Valley for three armed bandits who finally relented in their avowed purpose to take John Wrona, a Harwick grocer, "for a ride" and threw him out of their car on the Fox chapel road after robbing the victim of $200.

Wrona's unconscious form was found by a passing motorist shortly after members of his family organized a search for him. He told police he was severely beaten by members of the gang who kidnaped him from his home after taking the money.

Two of the men favored ending his life, Wrona recounted, in order to prevent him from giving their descriptions to police. The leader opposed such action, however, and handcuffs were removed from Wrona's hands and he was thrown into the road.

MODERNIZE

for Greater Comfort and Convenience

Your home will be worth more to you in the comfort and convenience that it affords if it is kept modern and up-to-date.

Your home represents a certain investment that you have made. The dividends and return that you expect from that investment are in commodious quarters, in a comfortable environment segregated from others, in the convenience of a home that is solely your own. If that investment is to be a good one, then your home must be kept neat and modern.

Why not plan now to make a few of the needed improvements?
